| Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.| Danville, Va., May 23.—In a game marked by some heavy hitting, in which triples and home runs featured Danville and Richmond played to a teninning tie, 7 to 7, here this atternoon the game being called at the end of the tenth, due to darkness. Donnovan worked for the visitors, while Bryant started in for the locals, but was replaced by Hanks in the eighth.

Richmond started the run getting in the fourth, when Egan lifted the ball over the fence, scoring a man shead of him. The locals scored in the same inning when Coggins walked, Frye got hit on the arm, and Dugan scored both on a two-bagger through short.

Richmond added two more in the gixth, and the fans grouned, and also another in the seventh on a long fly to deep centre, but Smith set the fans willd with delight in the same inning with another homer, scoring Kaufman, who walked, and Morgan, who covered the bags, adding three runs and tying the score. Smith was liberally rewarded by the fans.

The visitors got onto Hanks in the ninth and sent two more over the rubber, and at this stage a number left the park, but in the locals' half of the ninth Smith again saved the day. Morgan hit for two bags and Laughlin singled, and when Smith came to the bat he hit one squarely on the nose for a triple, scoring Laughlin and Morgan. Danville had a chance to win the game in the tenth, when Dugan

In some sources it will be regarded as as a great pity that Williams knocked the wind out of the sails of the dreamers who dreamed that he was owner of the Norfolk baseball club. All of the talk along this line can be put in the pitlling rot class, and to reader must have appeared as worthless spacefiler, along with such was readering what such was paying in salaries for players, as if the owners of the clubs were opening their books to tell their private business affairs.

It all started down in Norfolk, where the outlaw. live. Incidentally, the outlaws are very successful; so successful that the salary which Steve Griffin commanded as manager of the Norfolk club of that organization strained the purse strings a little too much, and he has "went." They do say that when pay day comes around it is rather trying on the nerves, esprecially when the country doesn't precially when the country doesn't precially when the count-up doesn' pan all pay dirt.

VICTORY FOR ATHLETICS

Cleveland, Onio, May 23.—Philadelphia again defeated Cleveland, the score being 9 to 1. Demott was knocked out of the box, while Mitchell, who succeeded him, was wild. Plank was effective throughout. The Cleveland team presented a crippled line-up, with Lajoie, Turner, Griggs and Jackson out of the game, necessitating the playing of a pitcher in centre field. Score:

Cleveland.

Cleveland.

Cleveland.

Philadelphila.

ton trimming Detroit in the first game And with Dixie Walker pitching! Sur-prises do happen, and verily it the cellar champions are going to lick the Tigers, Jennings's early lead is going to stand him in good stead.

Christy Mathewson is the latest to come into the fold of those of us who do not believe that the lively ball is responsible for all of the hitting. Christy holds that a great part of it is due to the poor condition of the pitchers, which comes very nearly being true. ing true.

Now, watch those White Elephants hustle. How about two championships in Philly? Stranger things have hap-pened.
